

Profile

Shri Manmohan Singh Negi

Additional Director General of Forests (Wildlife)
& Director, Wildlife Preservation,
Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change,
Government of India

Shri Manmohan Singh Negi has joined the Indian Forest Service (1984 Batch) in the AGMUT Cadre. Presently, Shri Manmohan Singh Negi is serving the Government of India on central deputation as the Additional Director General of Forests (Wildlife) and the Director, Wildlife Preservation, Government of India

The service of Shri Manmohan Singh Negi extends in various capacities. Some of the prominent posts held by Shri Manmohan Singh Negi in the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Government of India were as the Inspector General of Forests (Forest Conservation). Shri Manmohan Singh Negi served the Department of Environment and Forests, Andaman and Nicobar Administration as the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Wildlife), the CCF and the CF. He has served the Department of Environment and Forests, Govt of Arunachal Pradesh as the Addl. PCCF. Also, he has served as the Chief Wildlife Warden, Delhi.

Shri Manmohan Singh Negi, during his service, has pursued courses in Advanced Forest Management, Clean Development Mechanism, Forest Planning and Management, Applications of Remote Sensing etc. at various national and international Institutions of repute.

Shri Manmohan Singh Negi may be contacted at adgwl-mef@nic.in