

“Annual Conference of the Indian Zoo”

The Central Zoo Authority in association with a recognized zoo organises “Annual Conference of the Indian Zoo” every year in recent past. This year the “Annual Conference of the Indian Zoo” was organized in association with the Nawab Wazid Ali Shah Zoological Garden, Hazratganj, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh. The targeted participants are 30 numbers zoo director/officer-in-charge level officer. Accordingly, the selected zoos from every region of the country were invited to attend the conference. In total 20 numbers of the zoo director/officer-in-charge from 20 various zoos participated in the conference and sharpen and enhanced their skills in better management of the zoo. The various topics on zoo management, veterinary health care, animal welfare, zoo designing, education and outreach, Green Skill Development Programme (GSDP) in Indian Zoos and environment enrichment etc. were covered in order to benefit the participants.

Group photograph of participants of “Annual Conference of the Indian Zoo” at the Nawab Wazid Ali Shah Zoological Garden (12th to 15th November, 2018)